

MASTER SERVICE AGREEMENT GENERAL TERMS OF SERVICES

These General Terms of Services are incorporated into, and along with the executed Service Order, constitute, the Master Services Agreement (the "Agreement") between Customer and Tele-Data Solutions, LLC d/b/a TeleCloud ("TeleCloud").

By accessing or utilizing any of the Services or products offered by TeleCloud, you agree to be bound by the terms of this Agreement. These Terms of Services supersede all earlier versions and require mandatory arbitration of disputes. Please read these Terms of Services carefully, as they describe your legal rights and obligations. This Agreement shall become effective as of the date of (1) your signature on a Service Order or your electronic signature on or acceptance of this Agreement, (2) the activation of your account or (3) your receipt of an e-mail from TeleCloud confirming your order, whichever happens first. Customer may be referred to using "you" and "your" herein.

1. Term. The "Term" of Services to be provided to Customer from TeleCloud shall be as set forth in the Service Order. If no term of months is set forth in the Service Order or Customer does not select a longer term, the Agreement shall be on 36-month term. The Agreement shall automatically renew, after the original Term, for a 36-month term. Either party may terminate this Agreement (a) at the end of any initial or renewal term by providing the other party with at least sixty (60) days written notice: or (b) except as otherwise stated herein, during any initial or renewal term if the other party breaches any material term or condition of this agreement and fails to cure such breach within fifteen (15) days after receipt of written notice of the same. If Customer terminates Service before the term selected by Customer for any reason, or TeleCloud terminates Services for Customer's breach of this Agreement or the TeleCloud AUP, Customer may be subject to a termination liability. The termination liability shall equal 100% of the monthly recurring charges for the terminated Services multiplied by the number of full months remaining in the initial term commitment. Further, Customer shall be liable to and immediately pay TeleCloud for any discounts applied to the original Term of the Services, any equipment fees and any underlying third-party charges that TeleCloud incurs as a result of the early termination. All termination notices to TeleCloud must be sent to: TeleCloud, 1 Cattano Ave Morristown, NJ 07960.

TeleCloud may restrict or suspend your rights under this Agreement and Customers of the TeleCloud service at any time to the extent TeleCloud deems it is necessary to protect the TeleCloud network. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Agreement, TeleCloud may elect in its sole discretion to terminate this Agreement and any or all outstanding Service Orders upon providing Customer with written notice of such election. In such event, the effective date of termination shall be thirty (30) days from the date of such notice.

2. Fees and Billing. Customer agrees to pay the amounts billed by TeleCloud to Customer which shall include activation/installation charges, non-recurring charges, equipment charges, and monthly recurring charges and any other fees indicated in a Service Order or as set forth herein or in any addendum to this Agreement, or any cost recovery fees or government surcharges (collectively, "Service Fees") within thirty (30) days of invoice. You agree to pay all fees and charges incurred on your account, including any and all city, state or federal taxes and surcharges, whether imposed on TeleCloud or directly on you. TeleCloud reserves the right to change the rates and charges for any renewal term by providing you reasonable written notice in advance of the effective date of change. Any monthly recurring fees that contemplate a fixed usage of minutes for domestic and international use shall be subject to an additional usage charge for any minutes that exceed the fixed amount. Unless otherwise indicated in a Service Order, TeleCloud shall limit and cap usage for voice service at a standard usage rate, which shall be provided to Customer, and Customer may be billed for overages.

All fees and charges will be due, in U.S. dollars, on the first day of the service month as indicated on the TeleCloud invoice and may be charged to your Payment Account without further notices from TeleCloud. Billing is invoiced monthly in advance and will commence when the connection from the TeleCloud network is completed to your equipment and service is initiated. All recurring months charges are due at the beginning of the service month. Accounts are in default if payment of all amounts due is not received forty-five (45) days after date of invoice and are subject to an interest rate on the outstanding balance of either 1.5 % per month or at the maximum allowable rate under state law, whichever is lower. Accounts unpaid (60) days after date of invoice may have the Service interrupted or terminated. Such interruption of Service does not relieve you of your obligation to pay for the Service. Only a written request to terminate your service, in accordance with these Terms, relieves you of your obligation to pay for the Service. If you default, you agree to pay TeleCloud its reasonable expenses, including any attorney's or collection agencies fees, incurred in enforcing its rights.

"Payment Account" shall refer to the credit card account provided by you upon registration to pay for Services. TeleCloud may add, delete, or modify the methods by which customers can pay for the TeleCloud Services at any time without prior notice, in its sole discretion. TeleCloud Customer is deemed to have given TeleCloud on-going and continuous authorization to charge any credit-card provided to TeleCloud or any other Payment Account as long as Customer uses the Services and for any early termination liability. If Customer pays by check, if the check is returned unpaid, Customer will be subject to immediate termination for suspension of the Services as stated above and will be charged a check return and reinstatement fee in the amount of no less than $100, but in any event an amount determined by TeleCloud in its sole discretion.

3. Billing Disputes. Only disputes made in good faith, in a timely manner and properly documented as required herein, as determined by TeleCloud in its sole discretion, will be considered by TeleCloud. To meet these requirements, Customer must provide TeleCloud with written notice of any disputed charge(s) within thirty (30) days of the original Due Date for such charges. Along with such notice, Customer shall set forth in detail all grounds for disputing each charge and provide all documents supporting each dispute. Customer shall not have the right to withhold any amount not properly disputed. TeleCloud and Customer shall attempt in good faith promptly to resolve any dispute within thirty (30) days of TeleCloud's receipt of notice of that dispute. If a dispute is not resolved, TeleCloud shall have the right to determine in good faith the merit of each dispute and Customer's associated payment obligation. If TeleCloud determines that any amount withheld in dispute is owed, Customer shall pay that amount within ten (10) days of its receipt of written notice from TeleCloud of such determination, plus interest at the lower of 2.0% per month or the maximum rate permissible under applicable state law, calculated from the Due Date until the date payment is received by TeleCloud. Failure to pay such amount in full within such ten (10) day period shall be a breach hereof and shall entitle TeleCloud, in addition to its other remedies at law or equity, to terminate all Services to Customer without notice and without liability of any kind or amount. If TeleCloud determines that any amount withheld in dispute is not owed, TeleCloud shall issue a credit for that amount spread out evenly in future billings over a period to be determined in TeleCloud's sole discretion.
